GEORGIA ACADEMY FOR THE BLIND—MACON

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY: Act of Dec. 25, 1845 provided for the education of the indigent deaf, dumb and blind, ten to forty years of age, at the Cedar Valley Academy in Paulding county, or some other academy approved by the governor as able to provide the same kind of education that could then be acquired at the American Asylum at Hartford, Conn., and on terms equally economical as those at the said American Asylum (Acts 1845, p. 25). The governor's message to the general assembly, Nov. 2, 1847, reported that the education of the indigent deaf, dumb and blind at the Hearn Manuel Labor School in this state (Floyd county) had been successful (House Journal 1847, p. 27). The report of a joint committee to the general assembly, Oct. 25, 1901, contained the following: "The Georgia Academy for the Blind had its origin in a private manner. A number of citizens of Macon met on Apr. 15, 1851 and organized themselves into a body for the purpose of educating the blind. They subscribed a fund of $802 to support the institution....." (House Journal 1901, p. 86). Act of Jan. 19, 1852 provided for the incorporation of the Georgia Academy for the Blind; trustees of said Academy empowered to receive all gifts, grants, etc., which then belonged to said academy or might thereafter be made to it, to establish rates of tuition, etc.; indigent blind, twelve to thirty years, maintained and educated gratuitously (Acts 1851/52, p. 4). Act of Dec. 21, 1853 authorized the superintendent of the W. & A. Railroad to pass free of charge lunatics and idiots and their conductors on their way to and from the Lunatic Asylum and the deaf, dumb and blind pupils when going to and returning from their schools (Acts 1853/54, p. 97). Act of Feb. 18, 1854 appropriated $10,000 for the erection in Macon of a suitable building for the Blind Academy (Acts 1853/54, p. 14). Act of Mch. 1, 1856 appropriated $20,000 for the erection of buildings at the Institute for the Blind (Acts 1855/56, p. 10). Act of Dec. 18, 1857 appropriated $35,000 additional towards erection of said buildings (Acts 1857, p. 11). Resolution of Nov. 28, 1862 required all tax payers, in giving annual returns, to report number, age and sex of all blind, deaf and dumb children in family (Acts 1862, p. 106). Act of Sep. 13, 1881 appropriated $10,000 for organizing under the direction and management of the trustees, a department for the accommodation of the colored youths of this state (Acts 1880-81, p. 16). Act of Sep. 26, 1883 provided that all indigent blind persons, seven to twenty-five years, resident of the state two years, should be selected from the different counties and supported and educated gratuitously to the extent the funds would permit (Acts 1882-83, p. 61). Act of Sep. 28, 1883 appropriated $500 for necessary expenses of pupils selected by the trustees for surgical or medical treatment for blindness (Acts 1882-83, p. 33; note: patients treated without charge by Dr. A. W. Calhoun of Atlanta, House Journal 1884, p. 38). Act of Aug. 13, 1904 authorized the trustees to sell the lot and buildings between Orange and College streets in Macon occupied by the Georgia Academy for the Blind for not less than $50,000 and to purchase near the city of Macon not less than twenty acres of land and erect thereon all necessary buildings for said institution, same to be not more than two stories in height and of the most modern design for the accommodation, protection and education of blind children; also to suspend the operations of said academy for one scholastic year (Acts 1904, p. 89). Act of Aug. 19, 1905 set forth that the trustees having sold the Academy for the Blind for $50,000 and spent $12,000 of said sum for twenty acres of land near city of Macon on which to erect new buildings, that having suspended the operation of the academy for the blind white children from August 1904 to September 1906, there remained of the appropriation for 1905, after allowing maintenance for the academy for the blind colored children, approximately $9,000; therefore authorized the trustees to add said $9,000, together with $267.55 remaining from the previous extra appropriation for repairs for said academy to the $38,000 remaining from the sale, and apply such fund to the erection and equipment of the new buildings; also to apply so much of the annual appropriation for maintenance of said academy for 1906 as may not be needed for support during said year (Acts 1905, p. 1252). Act of Aug. 20, 1906 appropriated $65,000 for completion and equipment of said academy (Acts 1906, p. 14). Board of seven trustees is self-perpetuating, with elections reported to the governor (Acts 1851/52, p. 4); state superintendent of schools, ex-officio member (Acts 1919, p. 288). Board of control created by act of Aug. 28, 1931 to take over the functions of the board of trustees and the board of visitors, which were abolished (Acts 1931, p. 18). The Department of Public Welfare was created by an Act of Feb. 26, 1937 to take over all functions of the board of control, which was abolished (Acts 1937, p. 368). Act of Feb. 8, 1943, placed management and control of the Georgia Academy for the Blind under the State Board of Education from July 1, 1943. GEORGIA SCHOOL FOR THE DEAF-CAVE SPRING

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY: Resolution of Dec. 21, 1833 provided that the memorial of John J. Flournoy, praying the establishment of a school for the education of the deaf and dumb, be referred to the governor for the purpose of obtaining a full investigation of the subject (Acts 1833, p. 363). Resolution of Dec. 20, 1834 set forth that the proportion of deaf and dumb to the population as far as ascertained in Europe and America was about one person to every two thousand; that by the 1830 census Georgia had one hundred and forty-five deaf and dumb (fifty under age fourteen, fifty-one between fourteen and twenty-five, and forty-four over age twenty-five); that assuming twenty-five as the probable number needing the aid of government and $150 as annual expense of each the ratio was not large enough to justify the expense of a separate state institution; that the sum of $3,000 be appropriated for the education of indigent deaf and dumb, twelve to twenty years, in such manner as general assembly may deem best; that our senators and representatives in congress make every effort to secure for each state a township of the public land for creating a fund, the interest of which should be appropriated to the education of indigent deaf and dumb; that this state will appropriate $10,000 as soon as two or more of her neighboring states will co-operate with her for the purpose of endowing a southern institution for the education of deaf and dumb to be located at such place and organized in such manner as may be determined (Acts 1834, p. 281). Act of Dec. 20, 1834 appropriated $3,000 for the education of the deaf and dumb (Acts 1834, p. 25). Resolution of Dec. 20, 1834 provided for the appointment by the governor of a commissioner, authorized to draw for the fund appropriated for the indigent deaf and dumb; to pass on applications; to keep full records of beneficiaries, expenditures, etc.; to make necessary arrangements for conveying said indigent deaf and dumb to the American Asylum at Hartford, Conn., and for their expenses at said institution (Acts 1834, p. 307). Resolution of Dec. 22, 1835 reported that the Rev. Elijah Sinclair had been appointed commissioner, that he had traveled in twenty-five counties in the state in search of pupils and that he had sent six boys to the American Asylum; appropriated $4,450 for the education, support and clothing of twenty-six indigent deaf mutes in 1836 and provided for annual appropriation of said amount for said purposes; provided also that commission should have discretion to select under certain circumstances deaf mutes under twelve years of age (Acts 1935, p. 330). (Note: appropriation bill of 1835 did not include the $4,450 item for the deaf and dumb, probably because more than $2,000 of previous appropriation remained unspent, but provided $750 for the services of the commissioner). Resolution of Dec. 28, 1836 set forth that the benevolent designs of the state for the relief of indigent deaf and dumb had not been fully realized, perhaps mainly to a great aversion of parents to submit to the separation, and that out of sixteen fit subjects only three could be induced to go to the American Asylum (Acts 1836, p. 1 of resolutions). Act of Dec. 29, 1838 provided for the appointment of a commissioner, who should hold office during the pleasure of the governor, to receive applications of indigent deaf and dumb, ten to forty years of age and citizens of the state, and to make necessary arrangements for conveying such beneficiaries to the American Asylum at Hartford, Conn., to remain not longer than four years; appropriated $4,500 annually for support of said deaf and dumb as provided by said act (Acts 1838, p. 92). Resolution of Dec. 25, 1843 set forth that the trustees of the Cedar Valley Academy of Paulding county had reported to the governor a successful experiment in the teaching of the deaf and dumb in said academy for two years previous, that good policy required the teaching of this portion of the population within the state, provided it could be done as beneficially as elsewhere and requested the governor to enquire into the propriety of having the indigent deaf and dumb educated at Cedar Valley Academy or elsewhere in the state (Acts 1843, p. 198). Act of Dec. 25, 1845, repealed laws relating to the American Asylum at Hartford, Conn., provided the same kind of education could be acquired at the Cedar Valley Academy or some other academy in the state approved by the governor, and authorized the return of the Georgia beneficiaries from the said American Asylum (Acts 1845, p. 25). Governor's message of Nov. 2, 1847 reported that the education of the deaf and dumb and the blind at the Hearn Manual Labor School in this state (Floyd county) had been successful; that the beneficiaries who were at Hartford were removed to the school early in 1846 and that their number had increased to fourteen (House Journal 1847, p. 8). Act of Dec. 16, 1847 provided for the establishment of the Georgia Asylum for the Deaf and Dumb; for a board of five commissioners (the instructor of the deaf and dumb beneficiaries and four members appointed by the governor for one-year terms, with the majority residents of the county in which the asylum is located), who should purchase forty acres more or less and have erected the requisite buildings, said asylum to be not more than five miles distant from the place at which the deaf and dumb were then instructed, provided that not more than one-half of the appropriation of 1848 plus the unexpended appropriation of 1847 be spent for land and the erection and furnishings of buildings; beneficiaries to be between ten and thirty years of age and pupillage to continue not more than four years; office of commissioner of deaf and dumb abolished (Acts 1847, p. 94). Act of Dec. 21, 1853 authorized the superintendent of the W. & A. Railroad to pass free of charge lunatics and idiots and their conductors on their way to and from the Lunatic Asylum and the deaf, dumb and blind pupils when going to and returning from their schools (Acts 1853/54, p. 97). Act of Feb. 17, 1854 provided that all deaf and dumb persons, seven to twenty four years of age, should be entitled to the benefits of the asylum and the term of pupillage should be extended to six years (Acts 1853/54, p. 30). Act of Dec. 14, 1858 changed name of the institution to the Institution for the Education of the Deaf and Dumb, etc. (Acts 1858, p. 47). Resolution of Nov. 28, 1862 required all tax payers in giving annual returns to state number, age and sex of all blind, deaf and dumb children in family (Acts 1862, p. 106). Report of legislative committee, Dec. 2, 1862, shows school work in institution discontinued and live-stock, wagons, blankets, etc., sold off (House Journal 1862, p. 222). Act of Dec. 15, 1862 repealed annual appropriation (Acts 1862, p. 18). Message of Governor Jenkins, Nov. 1, 1866, reported that he had not caused the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb to be reopened, since prompt pecuniary aid would have been required (House Journal 1866, p. 23). Act of Dec. 13, 1866 appropriated $8000 for support and education of the deaf and dumb and $2500 for repairs of the asylum buildings (Acts 1866, p. 6). Act of Oct. 9, 1868 provided that all deaf and dumb children should be educated free of charge; that clothing should be furnished pupils by the institution upon certification of the ordinary that parents or guardians were unable to supply same; that shoes should be furnished all without distinction; that the board of commissioners might select some educated young men of state desiring to learn the sign language, on condition that they obligate themselves to teach in institution as many years as the board might agree to at the time of entrance; etc. (Acts 1868 Ex., p. 12). Act of Feb. 25, 1876 provided that all deaf and dumb persons in state, ten to twenty-seven, in a condition mentally and physically to receive instruction be entitled to all the benefits of said instruction (Acts 1876, p. 117). Act of Feb. 23, 1876 appropriated $2000 for the purchase of suitable property for the accommodation of the colored deaf and dumb mutes of the state, under the same rules that governed the white department; property to be located at Cave Spring and cost not to exceed appropriation (Acts 1876, p. 117). Act of Feb. 24, 1877 authorized admittance of pupils between eight and twenty-seven years and extended the term of pupilage to seven years (Acts 1877, p. 31). Act of Aug. 9, 1881 provided for the admittance of day pupils (Acts 1880-81, p. 96). Act of Dec. 17, 1892 changed name of institution to Georgia School for Deaf (Acts 1892, p. 83). Act of Dec. 21, 1893 appropriated $5500 for suitable buildings for instruction of pupils in mechanical and industrial trades (Acts 1893, p. 9). Act of Dec. 24, 1896 fixed ages of pupils from seven to twenty-five years, none to remain longer than twelve terms; shoes from shop furnished all pupils free of cost and clothing and railroad fare furnished upon certification of ordinary that parents or guardians were unable to supply same; pupils having no homes to be provided for during vacation by the boards of commissioners of their counties or other proper authority (Acts 1896, p. 83). Act of Dec. 19, 1900 provided for the appointment of an ear, eye and throat specialist (Acts 1900, p. 504). Board of trustees consists of seven members appointed by the governor for indefinite terms (Acts 1877, p. 32) and the state superintendent of schools, ex-officio (Acts 1919, p. 288). Board of control created by act of Aug. 28, 1937 to take over functions of the board of trustees and board of visitors (Acts 1931, p. 18). The Department of Public Welfare was created by an act of Feb. 26, 1937 to take over all functions of the board of control, which was abolished (Acts 1937, p. 368). Act of Feb. 8, 1943 placed management of the Georgia School for the Deaf under the State Board of Education from July 1, 1943. Small appropriations were made by the general assembly for the work of the state board of health in 1875, 1876 and 1877, after which the board ceased to exist for want of recognition by the state (House Journal 1892, p. 47). Act of Aug. 17, 1903 created the department a second time, providing for a board of twelve members—the secretary and eleven members appointed by the governor (one from each of the congressional districts, and the majority of whom should be physicians) for six year terms; board to have supervision of all matters relating to the preservation of the life and health of the people of the state, to have supreme authority in matters of quarantine, and to collect and preserve records of births and deaths; executive, secretary (commissioner of health and director of communicable diseases, by action of the board), to be a competent physician elected by the board for six year terms, who should keep his office in Atlanta, keep a record of the transactions of the board, be custodian of all papers, books and documents and other property be-

Act of Aug. 14, 1909 provided that the state board of health should keep with the several ordinaries of the state a reasonable supply of diphtheria antitoxine to supply physicians for charitable purposes and to sell when purchasers were unable to procure elsewhere at regular retail price (Acts 1909, p. 130). Act of Aug. 21, 1917 provided that in counties having a city of 60,000-150,000 population, the county board of health might appoint as the health officer for such city the district commissioner of health for said county (Acts 1917, p. 106). LAW, DEPARTMENT OF

The office of attorney-general existed in Georgia from the establishment of the provincial government in 1754 until the adoption of the constitution of 1789 (appointment of William Clifton Aug. 12, 1754, State Officers-Appointments, 1754-1827, p. 23), being during this period a separate and distinct office of government (see various appointments of attorney-general). The re-organization of the judiciary by an act of Dec. 23, 1789 placed the office of attorney-general in commission with the duties divided between two persons styled the attorney-general and the solicitor-general, one to attend the Eastern judicial circuit and the other the Western (Watkins Digest, p. 389) and this arrangement continued until 1796; the act of Feb. 23, 1796 (original on file in department of archives and history) re-organizing the judiciary provided for three judicial circuits and again placed the office of attorney-general in commission, with the duties divided between the attorney-general and two solicitors-general. The first two attorneys-general were residents of the Western circuit; the next three of the Eastern and all others residents of the Middle, the circuit in which the capital was located. (Solicitors-general of the circuit which embraced the seat of government, ex-officio, attorney-general. Code of Georgia, 1861, p. 79). He shall be thirty years of age, a resident of this state for three years, and have practiced law seven years. An Act of Feb. 18, 1943 created the department of law with the attorney-general at the head thereof, and assistant attorneys-general to be appointed by the governor with the approval of the attorney-general, and confirmed by the senate.

CONFEDERATE SOLDIERS' HOME

Atlanta

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY: A home for destitute and infirm Confederate soldiers was erected near Atlanta in 1889 by voluntary contributions of the people and remained unoccupied for twelve years (House Journal 1901, p. 29); in 1890 a bill (No. 272) was introduced in the general assembly by Representative Cutts of Sumter county offering the building and one hundred and nineteen and one-fourth acres of land, secured at a cost of about $45,000, to the state upon the sole condition of maintenance, and failed to pass (House Journal 1890, pp. 244, etc.); again in 1900 the same property was tendered the state upon the same condition, i. e., maintenance for twenty years or such period as the number of inmates might justify or require (later to be disposed of as the general assembly may deem best) and was accepted, the bill being signed by the governor Dec. 19, 1900; this bill provided for an appropriation of $15,000 for furnishings and maintenance when forty applicants had been accepted, vested control of the institution in a board of trustees, who elect the superintendent, and specified that ex-Confederate soldiers, honorably discharged, residents of the state for five years and unable to maintain themselves, may be admitted and shall be furnished with food, lodging, clothing, medicine and medical attention and decent burial, but said inmates may not draw a pension (Acts 1900, p. 86). Home was opened June 3, 1901 and burned Sep. 30, 1901; a temporary home was rented on Marietta street and the insurance on building and furniture, $21,500, supplemented by contributions from the public, rebuilt the house without cost to the state, the new structure being accepted by the building committee Aug. 26, 1902 and formally opened Sep. 24, 1902 (House Journal 1901, p. 29; Acts 1901, p. 14; Minutes, Board of Trustees, pp. 52, 92). Act of Aug. 17, 1908 authorized the trustees to sell a narrow strip of land separated from the remainder of the property by the extension of Confederate avenue and to use the proceeds in the maintenance or improvement of the Home (Acts 1908, p. 103). Act of Aug. 19, 1919 provided for an annual appropriation of $5,000 to furnish $1 weekly for each Confederate soldier, an inmate of the Home (Acts 1919, p. 38). MILLEDGEVILLE STATE HOSPITAL

Milledgeville

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY: Act of Dec. 26, 1837 authorized the governor to appoint two fit and proper persons to superintend the erection of a lunatic asylum to be located in some central point in the state approved by the governor, under the advice of medical gentlemen; one person (to be entitled to reasonable extra compensation to be fixed by succeeding general assembly) to go to Columbia, S. C., or elsewhere in U. S., where there is a lunatic asylum to obtain the best information within reach; committee to exercise discretion in regard to material, size, architecture and construction of edifice best adapted to such an institution and also to the probable cost of building, contracting as early as may be convenient with competent individual to commence work as soon as practicable; legislature expressly and emphatically imposed on committee the solemn enactment to visit the work once a week etc., and to report to the next general assembly; committee to give bond of $10,000; governor to appoint some intelligent medical gentlemen and a suitable individual to collect information as to proper internal regulations and police of such institutions and report to following general assembly (Acts 1837, p. 34). Act of Dec. 23, 1837 appropriated $20,000 for erection of lunatic asylum (Acts 1837, p. 27). Doctors Tomlinson Fort and B. A. White appointed to direct construction of building, etc. (governor's message to general assembly Nov. 6, 1838; House Journal 1838, p. 113). A resolution of Dec. 31, 1838 set forth the report of the commissioners of the Lunatic Asylum: that it had been ascertained that the proportion of insane persons was one person per thousand of the entire population, that medical men believed that suitable treatment of such persons in an asylum frequently tended to restore the unfortunates to their reason and that the previous general assembly planned an asylum for the insane and appropriate $20,000 of which the committee had expended $4,000 for a suitable site for the buildings; and provided that the commissioners be requested to have constructed upon the site selected the necessary buildings, etc. (Acts 1838, p. 284). Site chosen for location of asylum contained sixty acres of land lying two miles due south from the state house (report of Fort and White to general assembly; House Journal 1838, p. 432). Act of Dec. 21, 1839 appropriated $5000 towards the erection of the lunatic asylum (Acts 1839, p. 15). Act of Dec. 23, 1840 appropriated $9,000 towards the erection of the lunatic asylum (Acts 1840, p. 16). Act of Dec. 10, 1841 provided that the government of the state lunatic asylum at Midway be vested in a board of three trustees appointed annually by the governor for three-year terms; that as soon as the asylum should be ready for the reception of lunatics, idiots, epileptics or insane persons, it should be made known by the proclamation of the governor; superintendent to be a physician and reside constantly at the asylum; trustees to remove from office and cause to be prosecuted any person employed by them in said institution who shall assault any inmate of said institution or use towards such any greater violence than may be absolutely necessary for the patient's government, restraint or care; trustees to receive and hold in trust any grant of lands, or donation of money or other personal property for the maintenance of insane persons or general use of the institution; asylum to be visited monthly by one or more of the trustees, semi-annually by the majority, and annually by the entire board; justices of the inferior court to make commitments, but the nearest of kin of the lunatics or epileptics so investigated to be notified ten days before the trial; lunatics or epileptics, county or city paupers, to be committed for a sum not exceeding actual expenses of support; expenses of all inmates admitted to be paid by the county of their residence unless other sufficient security shall have been taken for their support; no lunatic or epileptic not a resident of the state to be received until satisfactory arrangements shall have been made for their support and discharge or burial expenses; no lunatic or epileptic, who shall have recovered his senses, to be discharged without suitable clothing, to be furnished by the trustees at their discretion, together with such sum of money as they may think proper, not exceeding $10; trustees to discharge upon application in writing, after cause of confinement shall have ceased, any lunatics or epileptics; $10,000 appropriated for completing and furnishing building then nearly finished, and defraying expenses of institution for one year (Acts 1841, p. 153). Committee report to the general assembly of 1841: the number of white inhabitants of the state of Georgia, who are idiots and insane, is ascertained to be near three hundred; add to this epileptics and the number will probably be about five hundred (House Journal 1841, p. 319). Act of Dec. 28, 1842 provided for the commitment to the asylum of such of the convicts in the penitentiary as were, or might become, lunatics; for the discontinuance of a resident physician at the said asylum until, in their opinion, the same should be necessary and to employ such medical aid as the number and condition of the inmates may demand, not to exceed $200 annually; etc. (Acts 1842, p. 22). Act of Dec. 28, 1843 provided that the pauper lunatics, epileptics or idiots, residents of the state, be supported in the asylum at public expense and that the governor be authorized to draw from the treasury a sum not exceeding $50 per annum for the support of every such lunatic (Acts 1843, p. 9). Act of Dec. 24, 1845 appropriated $10,000 to complete the building designed for the accommodation of the male patients at the asylum, $1,500 to pay the salary of the superintendent and resident physician, etc. (Acts 1845, p. 4). Act of Feb. 22, 1850 appropriated $3000 to buy such land in the vicinity of the asylum as may be deemed important and necessary to the interests of the institution; $2500 for the building of an infirmary; $2000 for erecting a separate building for the epileptics; etc. (Acts 1849-50, p. 17). Governor's message of Nov. 8, 1853 stated that there was one class of lunatics for whom no provision had been made—the slaves, and recommended a tax on all slave owners to care for them (House Journal 1853-54, p. 21). Act of Feb. 18, 1854 appropriated $3000 for purchasing lands lying between the asylum and the Oconee river and Camp creek; also $3000 for purchasing individual servants for the asylum who had been long employed and found peculiarly valuable to the institution; and authorized the governor to appoint five persons from different sections of the state to determine upon the necessary buildings to be erected for the additional accommodation of lunatics, and upon their report to draw such sums and at such times as the progress of the building should require, provided the estimate should not exceed $50,000 (Acts 1853-54, p. 81). Act of Dec. 21, 1853 authorized the superintendent of the W. & A. Railroad to pass free of charge all lunatics and idiots and persons having them in charge on their way to and from the lunatic asylum (Acts 1853-54, p. 97). Section 1308 of the Code of 1861 provided that apartments must be provided for insane slaves belonging to citizens of this state and free negroes resident of the state; the masters or free negroes able to pay for their support; those unable, to be supported as other pauper patients; the certificate of the justices of the inferior court of the county where the owner of slave or free negro resided, of his condition, mentally and pecuniarily, to be sufficient to grant patient admittance (Code adopted by the general assembly of Georgia by an act approved Dec. 19, 1860 and made effective Jan. 1, 1862; operation of Code suspended until Jan. 1, 1863—Acts 1860, p. 24, 1861, p. 28). General appropriation act of (Dec. 13) 1866 provided $10,000 to prepare suitable buildings for persons of color (Acts 1866, p. 6). Resolution of Aug. 26, 1872 set forth that lunatics, idiots and epileptics were confined in the same asylum; that such confinement was, in the opinion of medical men, deleterious to each class; that there were lunatics sufficient to fill the asylum; and therefore that the governor be requested to cause the trustees to select some appropriate place, sketch a design for a commodious and suitable building for idiots, epileptics and inebriates, with an estimate of the probable cost, etc., and report same to the next general assembly (Acts 1872, p. 528). Act of Feb. 27, 1877 provided that the lunatic asylum should be free to all lunatics, idiots, epileptics, and demented inebriates, resident of the state (Acts 1877, p. 113). Act of Aug. 11, 1879 appropriated $25,000 and the walls and buildings of the old penitentiary for enlarging the buildings for colored patients, fitting up rooms in the main building, and making other repairs (Acts 1878-79, p. 17). Act of Aug. 15, 1879 permitted superintendent to refuse admittance to harmless idiots and other harmless subjects not requiring treatment as long as there were recent and dangerous cases unprovided for (Acts 1878-79, p. 424). Act of Sep. 8, 1881 appropriated $165,431 for building a hospital, recreation hall, two convalescent wards, two buildings for colored male and female patients on lands adjacent to the present asylum, etc. (Acts 1880-81, p. 15). Act of Dec. 8, 1897 provided for the admission of women physicians to written competitive examinations with male physicians in filling any vacancy that might occur in the corps of assistant physicians, as it was the purpose to have at least one woman physician as assistant physician at the asylum (Acts 1897, p. 110). Act of Dec. 21, 1897 changed name of institution to the Georgia State Sanitarium, effective Sep. 1, 1898 (Acts 1897, p. 109). Resolution of Dec. 19, 1899 approved the creation of the chair of dental surgery in the sanitarium by the board of trustees (Acts 1899, p. 521). Act of Aug. 13, 1910 appropriated $15,000 for the erection and equipment of buildings at the sanitarium for the treatment of insane persons with tuberculosis (Acts 1910, p. 11). Act of Aug. 15, 1910 provided for a two-year course of training, instructions and lectures and the granting of diplomas to white female nurses while employed at the sanitarium (Acts 1910, p. 128). Act of Aug. 19, 1916 provided for the training of white male nurses while employed in the sanitarium and established a three years' course of instruction, lectures and training for both male and female nurses (Acts 1916, p. 111). Act of Aug. 20, 1918 revised law relative to commitments, specified the classes eligible and those ineligible for admittance, and provided that lunatics, idiots, epileptics and demented inebriates whose estates do not exceed $3000 or sufficient to provide for them, should be admitted for such reasonable board and keep as may be fixed by the trustees, etc. (Acts 1918, p. 162). Act of Aug. 20, 1929 changed name of institution to the Milledgeville State Hospital (Acts 1929, p. 324). Board of Trustees consists of nine members appointed by the LEGISLATIVE HISTORY: Act of Feb. 25, 1784 provided that the county surveyors of Franklin and Washington counties should lay out in each county twenty thousand acres of land of the first quality, in separate tracts of five thousand acres each, for the endowment of a college or seminary of learning; said land to be granted in trust to a self-perpetuating board of eight trustees, empowered to do all such things as to them shall appear requisite to forward the establishment of the same; surveyors to make returns to the trustees in six months and the land to be exempt from taxes (Watkins, p. 290; Marbury & Crawford, p. 330). Acts of Jan. 27, 1785 provided that the general superintendence and regulation of the literature of the state, and in particular of the public seat of learning, be committed to the senatus academicus, a body composed of the board of visitors (the governor and council, speaker of the house of assembly, and the chief justice) and the board of trustees of the University of Georgia (a group of thirteen men with perpetual succession named in the act); property of institution to be sold only with joint concurrence of the two boards and by act of the legislature, but the leasing, farming and managing of the property to be the business of the trustees; all officers appointed to the instruction and government of the university to be of the Christian faith, but no person to be excluded from any of the privileges of the university for religious reasons; president of the university, with the consent of the trustees, to have power to confer all such honors, degrees and licenses as are usually conferred in colleges or universities; senatus academicus to decide the kind of schools and academies to be instituted in the several parts of the state and to prescribe the branches of instruction for each and to examine and recommend, or appoint persons for that purpose, the instructors to be employed in the several institutions; the president of the university, as often as his duties will permit, and some of the members at least once a year, to visit and examine into their order and performances; all public schools supported by public monies to be considered as parts of the university (Watkins, p. 299; Marbury & Crawford, p. 560). Act of Jan. 26, 1786 appointed three commissioners to fix upon a place for the establishment of the seat of government and the university, said site to be within twenty miles of Galphin's old town; to appropriate from public lands, or to purchase a tract not to exceed one thousand acres and to lay out in lots and streets said town, Louisville; to reserve sufficient land for state house, university and other public buildings and to sell so many of the remaining lots as they shall consider to the public interest; to sell the government house and lot in Savannah and use monies arising from said sale for purchase of lands and erection of said public buildings (Watkins, p. 320; Marbury & Crawford, p. 129). Act of Feb. 3, 1786 requested the trustees of the university to lay out the town of Greensborough in Greene county on the college survey on Richland creek, originally in Washington county, and after reserving a sufficient number of lots for public buildings to sell the remaining lots and land adjacent, but the land so laid off should not exceed one thousand acres; money arising from sale to be used for the promotion of learning and science (Watkins, p. 322; Marbury & Crawford, p. 162). Act of Dec. 5, 1800 repealed the act of Jan. 26, 1786 so far as it concerned the fixing of the seat of the university and the act of Feb. 27, 1785 so far as it concerned the trustees of the university, setting forth that the said acts had not been carried into effect, that many of the original board had died or removed, and that doubts had arisen as to whether there was in existence a legal board; named thirteen men as a new board, who should collect all funds, papers and books belonging to the university or commence suits for same; and provided that the permanent seat of the university should be in either Jackson, Franklin, Greene, Hancock, Oglethorpe, Wilkes or Warren counties (Marbury & Crawford, p. 563). A joint committee of the general assembly reported Nov. 26, 1800 that there was no meeting of the board of trustees named in 1785 until 1798 and that it would appear that little attention was paid to the funds of the institution during that period (MS. Senate Journal 1800, p. 79). Joint committee on the state of the republic reported Nov. 24, 1801 that the senatus academicus had fixed upon a place in Jackson county by the name of Athens as a permanent seat for the university and had entered into contracts for the immediate erection of a suitable and proper collegiate building, which was then in the state of progression (MS. Senate Journal 1801, p. 217). Act of Nov. 27, 1802 appropriated $5000 as a loan to the trustees of the university to aid in erecting collegiate buildings, trustees first giving bond with security to repay said sum within five years with lawful interest; provided the trustees first deposited in the executive office unconditional relinquishment from Daniel Easley to all claims to lands conveyed by him to John Milledge for the use of the university (Clayton, p. 77). Act of Dec. 10, 1803 authorized the trustees to sell five thousand acres belonging to the university in Hancock county, also such lots and land adjoining the site of the university as they may think proper, after reserving thirty-seven acres for college yard; monies to be used to advance the beneficial purposes of the university (Clayton, p. 142). Act of Nov. 28, 1806 named five commissioners to establish a lottery for raising $3000 to purchase a library for the use of the university (Clayton, p. 308). Act of Dec. 22, 1808 provided for a new personnel of the senatus academicus, which should meet annually in August at Franklin College (Clayton, p. 456). A memorial of the board of trustees to the general assembly relative to the income of the university reported the loss of ten thousand acres granted the university, five thousand in the fork of the Tugaloo and Keowee rivers and falling within the state of South Carolina on the establishment of the boundary line, and five thousand in Jackson county which had been almost entirely recovered at law by individuals claiming same (Senate Journal 1811, p. 50). Act of Dec. 16, 1815 authorized the trustees to sell one tract of land in Greene county, two in Oglethorpe, one in Clarke, and one in Franklin belonging to the university, in lots of one hundred acres each at public outcry; proceeds to be invested in stocks in state or federal banks in the state (Lamar, p. 1058). Resolution of Dec. 18, 1819 appropriated $2000 for erecting edifice for grammar school of Franklin University (Lamar, p. 1216). Act of Dec. 21, 1821 provided that the permanent endowment of the university should consist of not less than $8000 per annum; that when the dividends from bank stock granted the university fell below that sum, the deficit should be paid, semi-annually, by the state treasurer from any funds not otherwise appropriated; authorized trustees to collect and retain $10,000 arising from sale of fractional surveys previous to 1821 and the state treasurer to pay to trustees $15,000 received from purchasers of university lands; said $25,000 to be applied to building new college edifice (Dawson, p. 487). Governor's message of Nov. 7, 1826 reported that a chair of moral philosophy, rhetoric and belles lettres had been added at Franklin College (House Journal 1826, p. 15). Act of Dec. 21, 1830 sets forth that the new college edifice, the library and many of the mathematical and other instruments had been destroyed by fire; appropriated $6000 annually to replace building, library and instruments and for defraying annual expenses, provided the justices of the inferior courts of each county should select one poor boy, fifteen to eighteen years, to be boarded and educated free of charge; and loaned $10,000 until such time as the trustees could repay it from the annual appropriation (Acts 1830, p. 4). Act of Dec. 26, 1831 repealed clause providing for the education of poor boys (Acts 1831, p. 6). Act of Dec. 2, 1841 repealed clause providing an annual appropriation of $6000 to university (Acts 1841, p. 84). Governor's message of Nov. 6, 1855 reported that by the liberality of the late Dr. William Terrell a chair of agriculture had been established and $20,000 donated, the interest from which was to be used for its support (House Journal, 1855/56, p. 28). Act of Dec. 14, 1859 abolished the senatus academicus and transferred its rights, powers, duties, and privileges to the board of trustees; board of fifteen visitors appointed annually by the governor to attend the examinations of the classes of the university (Acts 1859, p. 26). Act of Dec. 19, 1859 provided that Joseph Henry Lumpkin, William H. Hull and Thos. R. R. Cobb and their successors be a body corporate and politic under the name and style of the Lumpkin Law School with power to contract, sue, plead, etc., in the several courts of law and equity; to hold and dispose of property, real and personal, for use of said law school; to grant diplomas to graduates, etc. (Acts 1859, p. 84). Governor's message of Nov. 5, 1863 reported the operation of the university suspended when chancellor and entire faculty and a large number of students responded to call for volunteers (House Journal 1863, p. 40) and the message of Dec. 14, 1865 reported that the university would

ful buildings by the citizens of said town and western Georgia and to appropriate annually for the payment of teachers of said college, out of the land scrip fund or any other funds in their possession, such sum as may be deemed practicable and wise (Acts 1880-81, p. 100; note: this act never effective). Act of Sep. 29, 1881 appropriated $2000 for the purpose of enabling the trustees of the university to provide free tuition in that institution (Acts 1880-81, p. 16). Act of Sep. 30, 1881 provided that upon presentation by the trustees of the university of any valid matured bond of this state for redemption, the governor should issue in lieu thereof a bond equal in principal, due fifty years from date of issue, and bearing 7% interest, said bond not negotiable, transferrable, nor redeemable before maturity; interest payable on first days of January and July (Acts 1880-81, p. 101). An act of Oct. 13, 1885 provided for the establishment of a technological school (Georgia School of Technology; Acts 1911, p. 159), as a branch of the university, to be located within or near the corporate limits of that city or town offering the best inducements (Acts 1884-85, p. 69). Act of Oct. 13, 1887 provided that the governor should appoint annually five experienced educators, citizens of the state, as a special board of visitors, to attend the examinations of the university preceding the annual commencement and to examine personally into the condition and management of said institution; said visitors to submit their report in writing to the governor to be laid before the general assembly; compensation to be $4 per diem and mileage; whole service not to exceed ten days (Acts 1887, p. 67). Act of Dec. 29, 1888 provided for the establishment of the Georgia Experiment Station, said station to be regarded as connected with the Georgia State College of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts (Acts 1888, p. 49). Act of Nov. 8, 1889 provided for the establishment of the Georgia Normal and Industrial College (Georgia State College for Women; Acts 1922, p. 10), as a branch of the university (Acts 1889, p. 10). Act of Nov. 12, 1889 provided that all branches of the university that have been or may hereafter be established shall be open to all white female students of proper age and qualifications, with equal rights and privileges as those exercised and enjoyed by male students (Acts 1889, p. 123). Act of Nov. 26, 1890 provided for the establishment of a school for the industrial education of colored persons (Georgia State Industrial College for Colored Youths; Acts 1895, pp. 94, 95), as a branch of the university (Acts 1890-91, v. 1, p. 114). Act of Oct. 21, 1891 provided for the establishment of the State Normal School (Georgia State Teachers College; Acts 1927, p. 171) for the training of teachers for the common schools of the state, as a department of the university (Acts 1890-91, v. 1, p. 126). Act of Dec. 18, 1894 provided that it should be the duty of the trustees to promote the regular or bachelor of arts course, in order that the said course should not be subordinated to any other in the institution (Acts 1894, p. 63). Act of Dec. 20, 1898 amended the act of Sep. 30, 1881 by changing the rate of interest for future issues of bonds made the university from 7% to 3½% (Acts 1898, p. 68). Act of Dec. 22, 1898 provided that the university operate summer sessions in graduate and post graduate courses for the benefit of white teachers of the state without regard to sex (Acts 1898, p. 69). Act of Aug. 18, 1906 provided for the establishment of an agricultural, industrial and normal college (Georgia State Woman's College; Acts 1922, p. 174), as a branch of the university to be located in Lowndes county, in or near Valdosta (Acts 1906, p. 75). Resolution of July 22, 1908 approved application of board of trustees of the university for admission of the University of Georgia and such of its colleges and technical schools as may be eligible, to participate in the rights and privileges of the Carnegie Foundation for the advancement of teaching (Acts 1908, p. 1034). Resolution of Aug. 1, 1912 sets forth that the citizens of Thomasville in 1879 chartered the South Georgia College of Agriculture and the Mechanic Arts and, without aid from the state, procured grounds (a certain block) and erected a school building; that, upon the expectation of an annual appropriation being made by the state for the support of said school as a branch of the university, did execute a deed to the university; that said property was accepted and said school conducted as a branch college thereof, the state making annual appropriations until about 1890, when it practically abandoned all care of said property; that the city of Thomasville had, since 1901, expended in repairs, insurance, etc., $8,192.83; that in consequence of the above cited facts and upon payment of $1 the university is authorized to deed said property to the city of Thomasville to be held and used for educational purposes only (Acts 1912, p. 1578). UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

AUGUSTA

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY: Act of Nov. 27, 1822 incorporated the Medical Society of Augusta, Georgia (Dawson p. 193). Act of Dec. 20, 1828 provided for the establishment, within the corporate limits of the city of Augusta, of a medical academy for the state of Georgia with power to confer the degree of bachelor of medicine on candidates completing at least one year's study in said institution; that graduates be allowed to practice medicine and surgery in this state in the same manner as they would had they been examined and licensed by the board of physicians of the state of Georgia; and that the board of trustees be empowered to have and use property, real and personal, to an amount not exceeding $100,000 (Dawson, p. 196). Act of Dec. 19, 1829 changed name of institution to the Medical Institute of the State of Georgia and provided for the conferring of the degree of doctor of medicine on applicants attending two full courses of lectures in said institute or one course in institute and one in some other respectable medical college or university, in addition to the usual term of private instruction required by other institutions of a like kind (Dawson, p. 197). Act of Dec. 20, 1833 appropriated $10,000 for procuring a suitable lot of land, erecting the necessary buildings, and securing a suitable library, apparatus and museum for the benefit of the Medical Institute of Georgia; provided that fifty lots on the town common of the city of Augusta be sold for the benefit of said institution, provided the majority of the city council and the trustees of the institute approve same, and changed the name of the institution to the Medical College of Georgia (Acts 1833, p. 130). Act of Dec. 12, 1860 appropriated $10,000 to the Medical College of Georgia on condition that the college educate annually twenty young men, unable to pay their own expenses, selected by the governor, two from each congressional district and four from the state at large, Acts 1860, p. 66). (Note: college closed as a teaching institute and open as a hospital for three years, 1861-64; reopened for teaching on the first Monday in November 1865. Trustees of the Medical College of Georgia approached the trustees of the University of Georgia in 1872 with a resolution, reading in part as follows: ". . . Whereas there is reason to expect that the board of trustees of the University of Georgia will, at an early day, proceed to establish a medical department of the university; and whereas it is deemed desirable and proper that this institution should be adopted as such medical department, resolved, that we make an overture to said board of trustees at their next meeting, with a view of effecting the incorporation with the university as its medical department . . ."; the trustees of the University of Georgia at a meeting held Aug. 5, 1872 recommended the proposed connection and the first paragraph of the agreement between the two, recorded July 5, 1873, read as follows: "The proposed union between the Medical College of Georgia and the University of Georgia shall be accomplished as follows, . . . The Medical College of Georgia, shall hereafter be styled The Medical College of Georgia, being the Medical Department of the University of Georgia." Goodrich's History of the Medical Department of the University of Georgia, pp. 201-203). Act of Nov. 13, 1893 provided that whereas the fifty lots provided for in the act approved Dec. 20, 1833 were not set aside, but that a portion of the academy square, one hundred and forty feet on Telfair street by one hundred and forty feet on Walker street, was granted instead for the use of the Medical College of Georgia, that therefore the trustees of the Academy of Richmond county be authorized to convey to said medical college additional frontage of sixty-eight feet on Walker street (Acts 1893, p. 64). Act of Aug. 1, 1911 authorized the trustees of the University of Georgia to accept a conveyance from the officers of the Medical College of Georgia of title to all property, rights and franchises of the Medical College of Georgia and hold the same for the benefit of the said Medical College of Georgia as the Medical Department of the University of Georgia, and that the chancellor of the University of Georgia be given supervision over the said Medical College of Georgia (Acts 1911, p. 154). The budget and investigating committee reported to the general assembly June 25, 1919 that the city of Augusta supplemented the appropriation to the State Medical College so that it was practically doubled, and also that the college had a ninety-nine year lease instead of fee simple title to the property (House Journal 1919, p. 485). Governor's message of July 2, 1929 to the general assembly reported an annual rental of $5,000 paid for the property leased for ninety-nine years, fifteen years of which had been consumed (House Journal 1929, p. 215). Board of directors consists of three members from Richmond county and three from the state outside of Richmond county appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate for six-year terms, and three members from the university board appointed by the chairman of said board for two-year terms (Acts 1911, p. 154; Acts 1910, p. 74). Board of regents of the University system created by act of Aug. 27, 1931 to take over all functions of the board of directors, which was abolished (Acts 1931, pp. 24-25). Act of Dec. 29, 1888 provided for the establishment of an experiment station and experimental farm, to be known as the Georgia Experiment Station, with the specific object of determining the capacity of new plants for acclimation, the manurial value of fertilizers and composts, the making of soil tests and seed tests, the examination of grasses and other plants, the investigation of the growth, requirements and comparative value of different crops, the study of the economic production of milk and butter, and the conducting of such other tests and the making of such other investigations and experiments in the field as are suggested in the act of the federal congress approved Mch. 2, 1887, entitled an act to establish agricultural experiment stations, etc.; said experiment station to be regarded as connected with the Georgia State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts; board of directors to receive offers from counties, communities or persons to donate land and buildings or land and money, but in selecting site for said station to have reference to the central portion of the state, the accessibility of the place offered, the healthfulness of the locality and the adaptability of the land to represent the variety of soils in the state; $5000 appropriated to carry into effect the provisions of the act (Acts 1888, p. 49). The governor's message of July 3, 1918 to the general assembly reported that Georgia had given practically nothing to the Agricultural Experiment Station and that the U. Walter Wise, congressman of the sixth district of Georgia, and passed in 1918, provided that hereafter the secretary of agriculture be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to certify to the secretary of the treasury for payment, and the secretary of the treasury is authorized and directed to pay the appropriation for the fiscal year ending June

Resolution of Aug. 26, 1925 gave the assent of the state of Georgia to the provisions of an act of congress approved Feb. 24, 1925, entitled an act to authorize the more complete endowment of agricultural experiment stations, and directed that the board of directors receive the annual appropriation made the state (Acts 1925, p. 1584). Board of directors consists of one member from each congressional district (selected from practical and successful farmers) appointed by the governor for five-year terms, a member of the faculty of the Georgia State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts designated annually by the governor, and the commissioner of agriculture and the chancellor of the University of Georgia, ex-officio (Acts 1888, p. 49). Board of regents created by act of Aug. 27, 1931 to take over all functions of the board of trustees, which was abolished (Acts 1931, pp. 24-25). GEORGIA STATE COLLEGE (Colored)

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY: By an act of July 2, 1862 the U. S. Congress appropriate to each state land grant scrip for thirty thousand acres of public lands for each senator and representative in congress for the purpose of establishing a college or colleges whose chief object should be to teach such branches of learning as relate to agriculture and the mechanic arts; the proceeds of the sale of Georgia's land scrip, amounting to $243,000 were made subject to the order of the trustees of the University of Georgia for the support of these colleges. By act of Mch. 3, 1874 an annual appropriation of $8000 was made to the Atlanta University upon condition that the institution admit free of tuition charge as many colored pupils from each county in the state as there were members in the house of representatives from said county, said pupils to be nominated by said members, respectively; provided the trustees of said institution submit annually a plan for the expenditure of said sum to a board of commissioners (chancellor of the University of Georgia and two members of the faculty of same to be selected by him) and it be approved and filed in the executive office, and that said commissioners have authority to see that said sum be used according to the proposed plan of expenditure; that said appropriation should be in lieu of any claim of the colored population upon the proceeds of the agricultural land scrip; that course of instruction be modified to adapt same to the objects of the grant; that the board of visitors of the state university exercise like functions and powers touching said institution as are prescribed by law for said board in relation to the state university. The Atlanta University received said annual appropriation of $8000, 1874-1887, when a resolution of Sep. 23, 1887 discontinued the sum until a plan of expenditure insuring the exclusive use of same for the education of colored children only had been submitted and approved by the board of commissioners (it was discovered that the Atlanta University matriculated white as well as colored students, and its authorities asserted that they would continue to do so, in violation of the settled policy of this state against coeducation of the races). (House Journal 1890, p. 72) Act of Nov. 26, 1890 provided for the establishment of a school for the education of colored students, as a branch of the University of Georgia; school to be located within or near to the corporate limits of that city or town offering the best inducements, preference being given to such place as shall be of easy access to all the colored people of the state, and suitable buildings to be provided; course of training to embrace studies required by acts of congress approved July 2, 1862 and Aug. 30, 1890, making donations of public lands; one beneficiary for each representative in general assembly from each county in state, selected by county board of education, and tuition free to all students resident of the state; tuition for non-residents not to exceed $50; $8000 appropriated annually to school, said appropriation to be in lieu of any claim of the colored population of the state upon the agricultural land scrip; board of visitors of state university to exercise like functions touching said institutions as are prescribed for said board in relation to the state university; that in regard to the additional donation of the proceeds of public lands made this state by the U. S. under act of Aug. 30, 1890 the general assembly reports to the secretary of the Interior as an equitable division between one college for white students and one institution for colored students, two-thirds of fund for the whites and one-third for the colored; no colored student to be admitted into university and no white student to school for colored pupils (Acts 1890-91, v. 1, p. 114). Suitable buildings for temporary organization of school secured in Athens, and school fully-officered, opened under favorable auspices (House Journal 1891, p. 15). Savannah was chosen for the permanent location of the college and eighty-five acres were acquired by donation and purchase, thirty-five being set aside for the campus and the remainder for the college farm; school opened October 1891 with accommodations for forty students (House Journal 1892, p. 43). Act of Dec. 16, 1895 provided that the school should be known as the Georgia State Industrial College for Colored Youths (Acts 1895, pp. 94, 95), it having been previously known as the School for Colored Youths (Senate Journal 1895, 275).
